

Ready, SET, Go!

SNAPS e-Learning Tuesdays

October 16, 2012

Implementing the HEARTH Act: The Emergency Solutions Grants (ESG) program

Biographies

Presenter:

Michael Roanhouse, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Michael Roanhouse is the Director of the Program Coordination and Analysis Division at HUD's Office of Special Needs Assistance Programs (SNAPS). He directs the Emergency Shelter Program, helps manage the HPRP program, and oversees policy on the homeless elements of the Consolidated Plan, HMIS, and the Point-in-Time and Housing Inventory Counts.

Susan Ziff, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Susan Ziff has been HUD's HPRP Program Team Lead and is now transitioning to take on the Emergency Solutions Grant (ESG) Program Team Lead role as well.

Resource Advisor:

Brett Gagnon, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Brett Gagnon is with HUD's Office of Special Needs Assistance Programs (SNAPS). She has been instrumental in providing assistance in the development of the regulations in support of the HEARTH Act.

Janet Pershing, ICF International. Janet Pershing is a Project Manager at ICF who provides technical assistance on a number of HUD programs, including the Emergency Solutions Grant (ESG) Program.