

Lead Hazard Presumption Notice - Sample Form

The property listed below has not been evaluated for lead-based paint but it has been presumed that lead-based paint (LBP) or LBP hazards are present. Where interim controls are required by the LSHR, the designated party has the option to presume LBP and/or LBP Hazards, treatment of all deteriorated paint on exterior and interior surfaces, including soil, shall be stabilized in accordance with Sec. 35.1330(a) (b), or abated in accordance with Sec 35.1325.

Address/location of property or structure(s) this notice of presumption applies to:

Types of Presumption (Check all that Apply)

Lead-based paint is presumed to be present.

Lead-based paint hazard(s) is(are) presumed to be present.

Contact person for more information about the presumption:

Printed name: _____
Signature: _____
Date: _____
Organization: _____
Street: _____
City & State _____
Zip _____
Phone #: _____

Person Who Prepared this Notice of Presumption:

Printed name: _____
Signature: _____
Date: _____
Organization: _____
Street: _____
City & State _____
Zip _____
Phone #: _____

Summary of Presumption. List at least the bare soil locations, dust-lead locations, and/or building components (including type of room or space and the material underneath the paint)

Presumed Hazards

Bare Soil (list any areas of bare soil):

Dust Locations (check the following that apply):

- Window sills
- Window troughs
- Floors

Other presumed lead hazards (check any of the following components that have deteriorated paint or are friction or impact surfaces):

Locations

Exterior

- Windows _____
- Doors _____
- Trim _____
- Cladding _____
- Outbuildings _____
- Fences _____
- Porch A _____
- Porch B _____

Interior

- Trim _____
- Doors _____
- Windows _____
- Walls _____
- Floors _____
- Ceilings _____
- Other _____