

Reporting Disaster Counseling on the HUD-9902 Form

The revised Fiscal Year (FY) 2022 HUD-9902 form includes reporting data for disaster education, one-on-one disaster counseling, and impact of one-on-one disaster counseling. The agency's workplan must include disaster counseling to report the data. You can access tips and examples for completing the HUD-9902 report for the new sections developed for disaster counseling.

To capture the addition of disaster counseling the following sections have been modified to include these outcomes:

Section	Outcomes
Section 8: Households Receiving Education, by Purpose	8i. Completed disaster preparedness assistance workshop. 8j. Completed disaster recovery assistance workshop.
Section 9: Households Receiving One-on-One Counseling, by Purpose	9h. Disaster Preparedness Assistance – preparing and implementing an emergency preparedness plan. 9i. Disaster Recovery Assistance – referrals to, and the provision of recovery assistance resources for relocation, re-housing, and/or rebuilding.
Section 10: Outcome of One-on-One Counseling Services	10h. Households gained access to disaster recovery non-housing resources after receiving Housing Counseling Services. 10i. Households obtained disaster recovery housing resources after receiving Housing Counseling Services. 10j. Households for whom counselor developed or updated an emergency preparedness plan.

For additional resources related to Housing Counseling 9902 requirements and reporting, visit the Housing Counseling 9902 Online Toolkit.